The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday November 1, to Saturday November 5, 1763.

St. James's, November 5.

THE following Addreſs of the Council and General Aſſembly of the Iſland of Antigua, having been tranſmitted by Governor Thomas to the Earl of Halifax, one of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, to be laid before the King, has, by his Lordſhip, been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Council and General Aſſembly of the Iſland of Antigua.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

IN all Humility we approach your Throne, with our Congratulations to your Majeſty, for Peace reſtored to the greateſt Part of Mankind.

Long had Britain ſuffered from an ambitious Neighbour, and vainly tried the milder Methods of Negociation to redreſs her Wrongs; at Length your Majeſty's Royal Grand Father, like Heaven reluctant and ſlow to puniſh, drew the Sword to aſſert the inſulted Honour, and vindicate the violated Right of England.

Heaven bleſſed the juſter Cauſe; a Series of Succeſs enſued; and Victory crowned His Majeſty's Arms in every Part of the Globe where they were carried.

In the midſt of Triumph your Majeſty ſucceded to the Throne, ſurrounded by the Acclamations of your People. Animated with an equal Love of Glory, and prompted by the ſame Senſe of Juſtice, you purſued with equal Ardor the Example of your illuſtrious Anceſtor, and raiſed by repeated Conqueſts the Engliſh Fame to a more elevated Flight than ever it had ſoared before.

Victories ſo numerous and brilliant muſt make the Annals of your Majeſty's Reign the moſt ſhining Period of the Britiſh Hiſtory; but as true Greatneſs of Mind conſiſts not more in humbling the Haughty, than in ſparing the Suppliant, your Majeſty, in the full Career of Victory, lamented the Effuſion of Chriſtian Blood, and with a Moderation worthy of ſo great a Soul, generouſly granted Peace to the vanquiſhed Enemy.

So peculiarly happy were your Majeſty's Subjects in theſe Iſlands, that we with the warmeſt Gratitude acknowledge, that even while the Flames of War were kindled and conſuming the Poſſeſſions of our Enemies, in our Sight; ſafe in your Majeſty's Protection, and covered by your Squadrons, we ſlept ſecure and undiſturbed by the Enemy, and enjoyed all the Tranquility of Peace.

Confiding in your Majeſty's Paternal Care, under God, we hope that we ſhall be always equally ſafe in any future War that may ariſe between the Crowns of England and France, in all Attempts that may be made from the contiguous and powerful Colonies of France.

May all the good Effects, that your Majeſty, in your Royal Wiſdom, propoſed to ſecure for your Subjects, by a laſting Peace, be anſwerable to your gracious Intentions; may you long live for the Happineſs of your People; till, in a good Old Age, retiring from the Cares of Royalty, and reſigning your earthly Diadem, you receive an immortal Crown of Glory in Heaven.

Nath. Gilbert, Speaker of the Aſſembly.

Price 2s. 6d. the Paper; with good Allowance to those who buy it for charitable Uses, or to sell again.

 Experience having taught, that this Medicine, which is a safe and certain Cure for the above Disorders, is better prepared for Sea Service (and more convenient) in Bottles, than made up as usual in Marble Paper, the Commissioners, who have the Direction of the Medicines employed in the Navy, have ordered this Powder to be so preserved for the Use of all His Majesty's Ships of War; and a large Quantity is also made up in the same Manner for Merchants and Captains of Trading Ships, as well as for those who are any way concerned in Voyages, or the Sea Service.
